

ONLINE TESTING RESOURCES

**South High School and the Minneapolis Public Schools do not endorse nor recommend any of these websites. This is a list of resources that may be used by students and families to prepare for standardized tests as they so choose. For "pay-for" sites, it is recommended that students and families thoroughly evaluate the materials offered and promises made before registering or paying for services.*

Hennepin County Library FREE online ACT Prep <https://bit.ly/2iJqx7I>

Students will need their library cards in order to log in and register. This FREE service offers practice for the ACT, SAT, AP and PSAT tests.

Khan Academy <https://www.khanacademy.org/>

The College Board owns and operates the SAT and PSAT. They teamed with Khan Academy to develop this FREE online resource.

ACT Test Preparation <http://www.act.org/content/act/en/products-and-services/the-act/test-preparation.html> - free

Go straight to the source. Find the ACT resources and information on the ACT website. It provides practice exams, writing test hints, and an overview of how the test works. This site does include a limited number of online practice exams. There are FREE and PAY-FOR practice exams and tutorials.

McGraw Hill ACT Test Practice <http://www.mhpracticeplus.com>

FREE web-based practice tests. Includes mini-quizzes and timed and untimed options in Math, Reading, English, and Science.

Number 2 <https://www.number2.com>

This FREE online resource is available for students to practice the ACT. Students create a login. After logging in, they have access to tutorials, practice sessions and vocabulary-building activities.

PowerScore Test Preparation <https://www.powerscore.com>

Some FREE ACT and SAT practice exams. There are PDF files that students can print out and work through.

PrepScholar ACT and SAT Test Prep <http://www.prepscholar.com>

This is a PAY-FOR online test preparation site for the ACT and SAT tests. (Toggle between the two tests, depending on what you need). Students must register and PAY for an account.

ePrep SAT, ACT and PSAT <http://www.eprep.com>

This is a PAY-FOR online test preparation site for the ACT, SAT, PSAT and SAT subject tests, amongst others. Students must register and PAY for an account.